Unparalleled Professional Service from a Leader in Business Valuations & Litigation Support

With KatzAbosch in your court, you are assured of receiving the financial expertise needed to support and plead your case. Attorneys and insurance companies throughout the region and beyond rely on our experience to assist them in a wide variety of litigation matters.

When you are seeking expert testimony or financial counsel in your case, we provide sound advice, up-to-date information and knowledgeable insight. Whether working for the plaintiff or defendant, our approach to each matter enables us to maintain the proper perspective, thereby lending credibility to our conclusions. Our goal is to be your resource in the financial arena, ultimately making your job easier.

Business valuations are required for many reasons beyond litigation matters. Mergers and acquisitions, buy-sell agreements, estate planning and domestic matters are some of the other circumstances requiring business valuations.

Our professionals have the knowledge, experience and credentials to serve you and your clients' business valuation needs. For 40 years, KatzAbosch has been recognized for its superior performance and quality service. We are consistently chosen for our professionalism and comprehensive knowledge in affairs of finance as they pertain to litigation, business valuation, and forensic accounting matters.

In addition to our exceptional credentials, we also provide excellent communication skills which help you present your case more clearly. Our long-standing relationships within the legal and insurance communities are testimony to our proven track record of achievement.

Our commitment to the legal profession includes, but is not limited to, the following services:

- Business conflicts
- Business interruption
- Business valuation
- Corporate separations
- Criminal income tax matters
- Domestic matters
- Due diligence
